

---

CIVITAS Webinar

Public participation and involvement

Thursday 22 February 2013

14.00 – 15.30

CIVITAS VANGUARD and the CIVITAS thematic group “Public participation” will hold a WEBINAR on the topic of public participation and public involvement in mobility policies.

During this webinar experiences from cities having experience citizens engagement in the development and implementation of their mobility policies will be presented.

In the programme below you will find a short description of all presentations and speakers. At the end of the webinar there is an opportunity for questions and discussions.

Information & registration

More information: training@civitas.eu

Registration at

<https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/6753736228115487232>

Please register before the 22 February 2013, 12.00.

Programme

	INTRODUCTION Melanie Leroy, EUROCITIES (Belgium), CIVITAS VANGUARD Manager of the Thematic group Public participation
 Picture: Francesca Vezzani	CIVITAS AWARD WINNER 2012 -CATEGORY PUBLIC PARTICIPATION Alessandro Meggiato, Reggio Emilia (Italy) Reggio Emilia was the winner in 2012 of the CIVITAS Awards for public participation; the city will present its experience and show why it was selected as winner. The Manifesto for a Safe, Sustainable and Independent Mobility in Home-to-School Routes, aims to involve several actors in a shared planning process and to develop lines of action, projects and commitments
 Picture: Mirjam Logonder	PUBLIC PARTICIPATION IN TRAVEL PLANNING Debbie Reed, Brighton (UK) “We have entered a ‘new phase’ of travel planning where schools, businesses and individuals need practical support to sustain their travel plans and thus build on the successes of the past. The ARCHIMEDES Project enabled us to work in partnership with schools, businesses, residents in an innovative way to further encourage sustainable travel. In our presentation, we would like to share our past successes and ideas for the future of travel planning”.

Picture: Jan Zych

CIVITAS CARAVEL KRAKOW – FIVE YEARS AFTER

dr Andrzej Szarata, Krakow (Poland), CIVITAS Caravel Local Evaluation Manager, Transferability Manager

CITIZEN ENGAGEMENT IN THE FIELD OF MOBILITY

Milena Marega, REC Slovenia

In the four years of implementing the CIVITAS ELAN measures, project partners have identified and described a number of experiences of the citizen engagement processes. Successful practices and drivers that contributed to them as well as negative experiences caused by various obstacles have been gathered and described as lessons learned. These lessons can be regarded as recommendations for other players in the fields of sustainable mobility and public participation