Cities' responses to the Challenge of Youth Unemployment

Experiences from Malmö, Nantes and Rotterdam

EUROCITIES Working Group
Employment, SAF 2012

- Importance of subsidised work
- Outreach for young people in our deprived neighbourhoods
- Focus on young disabled people, adhd, asperger syndrome, intellectual disabled

- „ Welcoming companies “ - how do companies get involved in our employment policy
- Second Chance School and link with the network of local partners

- Bringing down the number of NEET (young people Not in Employment, Education and Training)
- Developing a regional approach on youth employment
- Connecting the business and education community

Malmö : How do we make young people of all sorts attractive on the labourmarket ?

Nantes : How to develop new approaches for hard-to-reach young people ?

Rotterdam : how to become a facilitator and enabler of good practices on the local level, with less money ?

- Special WG Employment meeting on youth unemployment ?
- Contribution to the Socio-economic Sciences and Humanities (SSH) programme ?
- NB = special research study 2013 -2015 with EU-funding and involvement of WG Employment
- Other suggestions ?
